

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, There were 270 persons killed on South Dakota streets and highways in 1964, and

WHEREAS, While South Dakota has made impressive strides in improving its driver license laws, its engineering for highway construction and its driver education and training programs, this advancement will not be adequate until every motorist accepts his moral responsibility for his driving conduct, and

WHEREAS, November is quickly becoming the month with the highest fatality rate,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November as

and urge every citizen of this state to join in this united Safety Campaign to awaken the realization of every driver for safe driving practices when behind the wheel of an automobile.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 18th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.
